7. Benham, Asahel. Social Harmony. 56 pp. Complete for first issue of first edition. Preface dated "Wallingford, September 6, 1798," but index includes tunes by Merit Woodruff on pages 57-60—pages not part of this coverless, partly disbound copy. These Woodruff tunes, on these four pages, were added to Social Harmony after the publication of Woodruff's Devotional Harmony in 1801, so the surviving pages of this copy probably date from 1801 or later.

no inscriptions, no MS. music

10. Brown, Edwin R. MS. music book. Dated 1855, but music likely copied in much earlier.
 52 pp., numbered later.

inscriptions: p. 1, “George A [Yar?] / E Brown / Hannah”; p. 52, “Mr. Edwin R.
 Brown’s Esq / Book. Cheshire Conn, 1855 / Mr. Almon. Ives & / Mrs. Almon.
 Ives [Co?] / Miss Jannette. M. Francis / Miss Harriet . A. Pond / Branford”

MS. music is mix of sacred + secular; sacred music (+ some secular) through p. 18, then only secular music; sacred music is written in shape-note notation, secular music written in round-note notation; all sacred music appears to be either tenor + bass parts (with staff provided for treble) or bass part; tenor incipits are transcribed, where present sacred MS. music entries:

pp. 1-2: BUCKINGHAM, tenor + bass, Am, 1|5-4-32|34|5-43|2, Help, Lord for men of Virtue fail

pp. 2-3: WAREHAM, tenor + bass, G, 3|3-13|2-D7U2|1-21|D7, How large the promise, how divine; music for the round “Scotland’s burning” written in staff originally intended for treble part of WAREHAM

pp. 4-5: DUNSTAN, tenor + bass, G, 131|43|21|5, Awake my soul to hymns of praise

p. 6-7: Christmas [by Munson], tenor + bass, G, 5|U113|445|314-3|2, O wonder of wonders astonished I gaze

pp. 8-9: Damascus, tenor + bass, F, 5|5-65-4|3-45-6|55|5, My God the Spring of all my joys

45. ➤ Griswold, Elijah, and Thomas Skinner. Connecticut Harmony. Edition between ASMI eds. [1] and [2]: ed. [1] (ASMI 230, dated [ca. 1796-98]) has printed blank staves on pp. 36-37, 51, and 56-62; ed. [2] (ASMI 231, dated [ca. 1798]) has printed music on all these pages through p. 61, with printed blank staves on p. 62 and 4 following leaves; this ed., while lacking the leaf with pp. 36-37, has printed music on p. 51 and pp. 56-59, but no printed music thereafter (pp. 60-61 bear printed p. nos. and printed staves, but MS. music only). This edition can therefore speculatively be dated [ca. 1797]. Lacks pp. [1-2], 35-38, 47-50, and possibly 2 leaves of printed blank staves at the end; pp. 19-22 bound in after pp. [23]-26; additional copy of leaf bearing pp. 25-26 pasted inside fragmentary front cover.

numbered on versos and rectos as follows: leaves [1-22] numbered 2-23 on versos, leaf [23] unnumbered on verso; fragmentary leaves [1-8] show no numbering on rectos, leaves [9-11] numbered 9-11 on rectos, fragmentary leaf [12] shows no numbering on recto, leaves [13-20] numbered 13-20 on rectos, fragmentary leaf [21] shows no numbering on recto, leaves [22-23] numbered 22-23 on rectos at least 2 hands throughout, usually differentiated between recto and verso sides of the leaves leaves [1-22] contain MS. music; leaf [23] has MS. indices on both sides inscriptions: inside front cover, "Dolly / Mills"; leaf [23] verso, "DOLLY / MILLS."; inside back cover, "Treble / Dol[l]y Mills" one source tunebook for this copyist was Asahel Benham's Federal Harmony, printed in six editions between 1790 and ca. 1796; the unidentified (because fragmentary) treble parts on the earlier leaves of this MS. were almost certainly copied from pieces in Benham's tunebook; *before a title means the piece is known to be in Benham's book

 MS. music is treble parts and 3-voice tunes: leaves [1-12] contain 3-voice tunes on rectos + treble parts on versos, and leaves [13-22] are all treble parts, except for the verso of leaf [19] which contains a 3-voice tune
 MS. music entries (tenor incipits given for 3-voice tunes; entries complete unless otherwise noted):
 leaf [1] recto: WINDHAM [by Read], 3 voices, Fm, 1|345|532|1, treble voice lacks final note because of fragmentary leaf leaf [1] verso: *RECOVERY [by Brownson], treble, C, 111|D57|6-5-6-7U1|D7 [tenor incipit: 133|32|3-1-43|2], "C. M. Ps. 73rd" to left of the title "Recovery" probably refers to the treble part for SILVER-SPRING, a C.M. setting of Watts's versification of the 73rd Psalm which appears on the page immediately opposite RECOVERY in Benham's Federal Harmony; this treble part is however entirely missing from the MS. because this leaf is fragmentary

Ms 76196

83. MS. leaf (oblong; originally part of a bound volume?) with "Ode for Washington, by a young Lady" (text only) on one side and 4-voice sacred tune TRUMPET on the other side text for "Ode for Washington" dated "Saybrook June 3<sup>d</sup>. AD 1783-----"
- TRUMPET, TCTB, G, tenor incipit 1|1232|3#45, He comes, he comes, the Judge severe!, 5 verses of text written below music, "16" in upper left corner (originally a p. no.?)

Ms 70594

84. MS. music book. Undated, but assigned the dates 1792-1822 by CMCH (handwritten date of 1792 on 1st p. 43; printed date of Tuesday, Jan. 1, 1822 on newspaper clipping pasted to leaf [11] verso). Pages probably numbered 3-45 (see below), with p. no. 43 repeated (22 leaves); 10 additional unnumbered leaves; MS. music entry locations will be given here with supplied leaf nos., with original p. nos. also provided when they are present and visible newspaper clippings containing poems pasted (one pinned) to what are probably pp. 3-25 and 41, obscuring musical text and page numbers; tops of p. nos. 7, 9, + 11 and p. no. 15 are visible one piece has a visible attribution: "Columbia. An Ode, sung at the General Election in Hartford, 1792---Composed in 3 parts by M<sup>r</sup>. Timothy Olmsted" (pp. 42-43, 43-45); probably the reason why CMCH attributes this MS. to Timothy Olmsted; at this point, the MS. does seem to become a composer's workbook, with sketches, crossed-out portions, and revisions for several pieces no inscriptions; printed bookplate pasted inside front cover ("HARTFORD / Circulating Library. / D. RUSSELL. / MAIN STREET." (Library "terms" follow)

MS. music is 3- and 4-voice tunes and anthems, some texted; many entries obscured by paste-ons; visible excerpts of various voice parts transcribed here; assume that an incipit or a fragment from later in the tune is tenor voice unless otherwise specified

100. [Spicer, Ishmael, item 2:] David's Harp: being a choice collection of the Songs of Zion: for the use of Worshipping Assemblies. New London, Conn.: Samuel Green (printer and publisher), 1816. 72, [1] pp.

t. p. (p. [1]), rudiments (pp. "3"[recte 2]-8), printed music (pp. 9-48) (printed index, p. [49], is not present in this copy); followed by pages with printed staff lines, page numbers, and occasional final bar lines (pp. 49-72); these last pp. are all filled with MS. music

MS. music on p. l., printed pp. 49-72, and 12 smaller leaves—numbered by hand pp. 73-96—bound in after printed p. 72 unnumbered final p. carries a printed index to the printed music on pp. 9-48; on the verso of this leaf and on the recto of the a. l. that follows it is a problematic handwritten index, listing almost all the MS. tunes in this book with correct page numbers (exceptions: pp. 92-93 in the MS. are FOUNTAIN, whereas NEW EXHORTATION is given for those pp. in the index; pp. 94-95 in the MS. are HUDSON, C.M., whereas SCHENECTADY, L.M. is given for those pp. in the index); this handwritten index also includes tunes with page numbers between 6 and 18 (occupied in this book by printed rudiments, and by printed tunes whose titles don't match) and between 108 and 151 (the pages in this book only go to p. 96), several tunes without page numbers (some of these appear in the book; others don't), and other tunes that don't appear in this book (e.g., RUSSIA, with a page number of 55 in the index, whereas in the MS. this is the second page of SCOTLAND) inscriptions: front cover, "Ishmael Spicer's Book."; t. p., "Ishmael Spicer's, Bozrah, (Con.) June, 28th / 1817."; text info., composer names, additional text added in MS. to printed music

MS. music is 3- or 4-voice sacred-texted pieces, unless otherwise noted:

101. [Spicer, Ishmael, item 3:] MS. music book. 8 unnumbered leaves, then MS. music on pp. 9-42, 2nd pp. 29-[32], 43-108, 119-140, 117-118, 109-116.

on microfilm only; original MS. unlocatable in 2019; shaded areas on film make it hard sometimes to determine, for example, whether or not a page number is actually present, so some guesswork was inevitable various MS. entries (2 lines of poetry, treble part, rudiments, inscription) on leaf [1]; printed rudiments (typeset) on leaves [2-5]; MS. index of tunes + anthems on leaves [6-7]; leaf [8] blank inscriptions: inside front cover, "O/y" [?]; leaf [1] recto, "'Trust not the Man whom music don't delight, / 'For why? His soul is as the gloomy night.'"; leaf [1] verso, "Sol, Law, Mi, Faw." [syllables written above sample notes with appropriately-shaped note-heads: circle, square, diamond, triangle], "In the days of my Grandfather / Ishmael Spicer, printed / music was very costly. / He being a teacher of music / wrote all of his music with a / quill pen. As you will see by / these books. / A A Spicer."; leaf [2] recto, "Ishmail Spicer / Mont[ville?] [remainder illegible]"

MS. music entries are all 3- + 4-voice tunes + anthems; tenor incipits recorded for 4-voice pieces, either top or middle voice incipits recorded for 3-voice pieces
